

VACLC REQUIRED DOCUMENTATION

What to bring when you apply:

The following items must be produced by the veteran or the widow at the time of application for any VA claim or VACLC Veteran's Assistance benefit claim.

	VA Claim	Assist Claim
1	✓	✓	DD Form-214 or report of separation if prior to 1/1/1950.
2	✓	✓	Drivers license OR state identification card for the veteran and the spouse.
3	✓	✓	Social Security Card for the veteran, the spouse, and each member of the household AND a copy of the birth certificates for each child.
4	✓	✓	Current marriage license and any divorce decrees.
5	✓	✓	The most current income tax return AND proof of all income for the vet and the spouse. If employed, copies of the current pay stubs are be required.

Some examples of reportable income are employment, unemployment, retirement, VA compensation or pension, Social Security, disability or workman's compensation benefits, income from rentals or real estate transactions, businesses, crops, and annuities.

6	✓	✓	Earned interest statements from 401K, CD's, stocks, bonds, & other investments.
7	✓	✓	Current checking & savings statements.
8		✓	All current utility bills (electric, gas, propane, water, sanitation, & waste removal). Phone, cable, & internet are NOT covered.
9		✓	Proof of mortgage payments or a copy of current lease agreement.
10	✓	✓	If applicable, proof of child support or alimony payments or amounts received.
11	✓		Proof of all un-reimbursed prescriptions, hospital and doctor expenses, fees for medical insurance including Medicare, and over-the counter medical expenses.